TARGETED FOR SPEAKING TRUTH TO POWER

WRITE FOR RIGHTS

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

AYACHI HAMMAMI

TUNISIA

Ayachi Hammami is a Tunisian human rights lawyer imprisoned after a sham terrorism-related trial linked to his defence of judges, lawyers, journalists, activists and opposition figures. Ayachi has spent decades fighting for justice and human rights in the country. His imprisonment reflects Tunisia's growing crackdown on peaceful dissent and misuse of the justice system to silence critics.

Call for the immediate and unconditional release of Ayachi Hammami, as he is detained solely for his peaceful human rights activism and legal work.

Index: MDE 30/1047/2026
Portrait: © Private
Context images (from top left): © Nawaat.org, © Private, © Nawaat.org, © Private