WRITE FOR RIGHTS

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

PUNISHED FOR PROTECTING HER PEOPLE

DARIA EGEREVA

RUSSIA

Daria Egereva is an Indigenous rights defender from Russia facing up to 20 years in prison for peaceful activism. A climate justice advocate and proud member of the Selkup People, she has dedicated her life to protecting Indigenous lands, languages and cultures. Despite threats and detention, Daria has remained courageous and committed to defending the rights of her people.

Call for the immediate and unconditional release of Daria Egereva and for an end to the repression of Indigenous activists exercising their rights across Russia.