

Friendship Week 2018

Further resources

Walking Debate Statements

Take a small selection of the following statements appropriate to your class level and topic of discussion. Print them on A4 sheets and hold them up to initiate a walking debate. It is better to choose just a few and allow time for in depth discussion and to hear a variety of opinions. Each question is also written on a single sheet below for printing out.

Agree or disagree

A good friend will always agree with you.

Friendship is one of the most important things in my life.

A friend will accept you for who you are.

Friendship is not always easy.

I think everyone in my class can be brave.

I like when others stand up for me.

I enjoy standing up for those who don't have a voice.

People who don't feel listened to need to be braver.

We learn how to be brave in school.

We learn how to be brave from our friends and family.

I will always have the same friends.

We could do more as a class to stand up for others. We could do more as a country to stand up for the rights others.

It is easy to be brave.

We can feel brave in some situations and not in others.

You can feel scared and be brave at the same time.

Heroes stand up for the rights of other people.

We can be heroes.

There are people in this world that cannot speak up for themselves.

Our world needs more human rights defenders.

The more friends I have the better.

A good friend will always agree with
you.

Friendship is one of
the most important
things in my life.

A friend will accept
you for who you
are.

Friendship is not always easy.

I think everyone in
my class can be brave.

I like when others
stand up for me.

I enjoy standing up
for those who don't have a voice.

People who don't feel listened to
need to be braver.

We learn how to be
brave in school.

We learn how to be
brave from our
friends and family.

I will always have
the same friends.

We could do more
as a class to stand
up for others.

We could do more
as a country to stand up for the rights others.

It is easy to be
brave.

We can feel brave
in some situations
and not in others.

You can feel scared
and be brave at the same time.

Heroes stand up for the rights of other people.

We can be heroes.

There are people in this world that
cannot speak up for themselves.

Our world needs
more human rights
defenders.

The more friends I
have the better.